

EAGER SENDS IN TWO SALOON BILLS

Prohibits Sale of Liquor in Rooms Used For Store
Purposes.

FREE LUNCH IS DENIED

Two Important Measures Affecting Life Insurance Companies Introduced.

BIG FLOOD OF BILLS TODAY

Madison, Wis., Jan. 31.—A memorial to congress urging the passage of the Grout bill passed the senate unanimously today. There was a flood of bills introduced today. In the assembly Eager introduced two saloon bills, one abolishing free lunch and another prohibiting the sale of liquor in rooms in which merchandise is sold or in adjoining rooms connected. The bill requiring barbers to be licensed was also introduced.

To Regulate Life Insurance.

Senator Roehr of Milwaukee today introduced two important bills affecting life insurance companies. This bill provides that no mutual life insurance company in this state can spend more for new business than the premiums paid by the new policy holders for the first year will amount to. The bill forbids the companies or any of the officers paying out money for commissions from the surplus or profits of the company which are declared to belong to the old policy holders and must go for their benefit.

The other bill requires all mutual life insurance companies to issue annual statements of business and the amounts of profits to the policy holders, and to keep separate accounts with each policy holder, to which the latter shall have access, in order that he may learn at any time his share of the surplus and profits.

Aimed At Christian Scientists.

A medical license bill requiring all osteopaths and Christian Scientists to take an examination and qualify as physicians, under the state board of medical examiners, was introduced today. The bill is aimed especially at the Christian Scientists and osteopaths, between whom and the state medical examiners there has been war for the last three years over the right of the medical examiners to require Christian Scientists and osteopaths to submit to an examination. The bill not only requires these two classes to take the examination, but makes all candidates for license to practice as physicians, whether graduates of accredited medical colleges or not, take an examination at the hands of the board.

Other Bills Introduced.

Other bills introduced were: Allowing none but lawyers to be eligible for county judges; for the adoption of the Torrens land title system; authorizing the state superintendent to compile and print text books to be sold to schools at cost; making the alteration or forging of railway tickets a misdemeanor; permitting county boards to establish schools of agriculture; authorizing the governor to appoint a board of live stock commissioners to have charge of quarantining, etc.; increasing the salaries of the justices of the supreme court from $5,000 to $7,000 per year and of circuit judges from $3,600 to $5,000 per year.

READY FOR APPORTIONMENT.

Joint Legislative Committee Has Now Been Completed.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 30.—The joint apportionment committee of the two houses of the legislature are now complete and work on redistricting the congressional and legislative districts of Wisconsin will begin today. Senator Riordan, chairman of the joint committee, says that he has received from Washington the figures of the census department on the population of the most of the districts of the state, and those that have not yet been computed can be estimated, so that there will be no delay in that direction so far as the committee's work is concerned.

At the meeting this afternoon Mr. Riordan will outline some of his plans and while it is not probable that anything but an informal discussion will take place, it is the purpose of the chairman to push the work as much as possible.

Confirm Haugen's Appointment.

The appointment of ex-Congressman N. P. Haugen was unanimously confirmed yesterday morning in the senate without discussion. The same was done with the appointment of the Commissioner of Statistics Halford Erickson. There was no suggestion of opposition to Mr. Haugen's confirmation. Members of the senate who have been reported as being opposed to Mr. Haugen's appointment, and as wishing to prevent his confirmation, said today that they had been unjustly represented in these reports.

For State Institutions.

Assemblyman Dahl offered a bill for appropriations for the various state institutions as follows:

- Wisconsin Hospital for Insane, $130,000.
- Northern Hospital for Insane, $127,000.
- School for the Deaf, $74,000.
- School for the Blind, $65,000.
- Industrial School for Boys, $100,000.
- States Prison, $87,000.
- Home for the Feeble Minded, $88,000.
- State Reformatory, $80,000.

Aid for Graded Schools.

Senator Bissell introduced in the senate a bill providing state aid for the graded schools in Wisconsin. The bill, which was drawn by Mr. Bissell in consultation with State Supt. Harvey, makes an appropriation of $75,000 annually for the purpose. The free high schools of the state receive $100,000 a year from the state under the law passed two years ago. That bill was introduced by Senator Bissell. For some years it has been felt among the educators of the state that the graded schools should receive state aid, and at the same time be brought under state supervision.

LIFE OF A NEWSBOY

Des Moines College Students Addressed
by One Who Has Made a Fortune.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 31.—"Moss" Jacobs, who has been a newsboy in Des Moines for twenty five years, made a speech before 1,000 students of Drake university at the chapel yesterday morning. It was his first public speech but will lecture occasionally hereafter. He told of his astonishing success at selling papers at one corner all of his life and his accumulation of a fortune, which is estimated at from $40,000 to $75,000.

Large new lot of goods are daily being shown at the Rummage sale. Drop in. It won't cost you anything.

WALDERSEE'S PLANS TO EVACUATE

Says Guilty Persons Must Suffer Punishment Before
Troops Are Withdrawn from China.

Pekin, Jan. 31.—The plan of Commander in Chief Field Marshal Von Waldersee for the evacuation of Pekin and other places now held by the allied troops was transmitted to the foreign ministers through the various commanders of the allies. Count Von Waldersee says: "Before this change can be undertaken the Chinese will have to make a start at least toward fulfilling the conditions of the peace treaty. I believe that for this purpose the actual infliction of punishment on the guilty parties, as demanded by the diplomatic corps, would be sufficient, together with China's consent to pay the different governments the war indemnities to be demanded by them. When this has been done the withdrawal of the foreign forces from Pekin and Pao-Ting-Fu may follow. At the same time the forces in Pe-Chen-

Lee may be minimized." Count Von Waldersee then calls attention to the fact that it will be impossible to embark the foreign troops before March on account of the frozen condition of the rivers and harbors and the lack of transports. He continues: "Tientsin and the neighborhood of Shan-Hai-Kwan will have to remain occupied by international troops until the following two conditions are fulfilled: 1. The Chinese government must give proof that it is willing and able to maintain peace and order in the provinces of Chi-Li and to effectually protect missionaries, Christians and other foreigners. 2. The Chinese government must state in what manner it will manage to provide money for the payment of the indemnities. This must be satisfactory to the powers."

POLICE CAPTURE DR. RODERMUND; HE IS LOCKED UP IN MILWAUKEE

Fights His Captors—Health Officers Compelled To Drag Him to the Isolation Hospital,
Where He is Closely Guarded.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 31.—Dr. Matthew J. Rodermund of Appleton, Wis., who exposed himself to small-pox to prove that it was not contagious, was caught by the Milwaukee police last night, and is now in the Detention hospital.

Since he escaped from the house in Appleton in which he was quarantined last Saturday night he has been in three states, and spent part of two days in Chicago without being caught. He will now remain safely guarded by the Milwaukee authorities until next Monday morning, when, if he shows no signs of disease he can be released.

Dr. Rodermund for two hours was kept in the archway under the City Hall Tower in the cold, as the policemen who guarded him were instructed to keep him in the open air.

Dr. Rodermund Resists.

Dr. Rodermund made violent protest against being taken to the hospital when Chief Inspector Curtis arrived but was finally dragged into the ambulance. Dr. Rodermund announced repeatedly that the Milwaukee authorities would suffer for their action and said that there was no legal grounds for his arrest.

During the struggle of his arrest Dr. Rodermund said:

"I have taken the surest means to scatter smallpox if it is contagious. You are a lot of fools, deceivers, frauds and murderers of human beings."

The Chicago police had recognized him, he said, and had, in his opinion, been afraid to arrest him.

At the isolation hospital two health officers were waiting when the doctor arrived and will keep strict guard to be sure that he does not repeat his trick of escaping the authorities as he did from those of Appleton.

Vaccinate Three Hundred.

The biggest vaccination party that ever took place in Milwaukee was held yesterday, when over 300 children of the Nineteenth District school bared their arms to the health department, which does not propose to let smallpox get a foothold in that neighborhood, where one case has already been found.

INDIAN UPRISING HAS BEEN QUELLED

The Warlike Snake Bands Have Laid Down Their Arms and Gone to Their Homes.

Muskogee, I. T., Jan. 31.—The Creek Indian uprising has been quelled and after the capture of their leaders the Snake bands have laid down their arms and gone to their homes. Tom Tiger, a Creek lighthorseman, was put in jail here this evening for posting notices ordering white men out of the country.

Enough information has been secured to arrest about 200 full bloods on the charge of treason against the United States government. Statements made by Bear Trail and a few other full bloods show that the Indians had in mind a great conspiracy which embraced the full bloods of the five civilized tribes.

In a month more every white man's house in the Creek country would have been burned but for the discovery of the plot. The troops will not be withdrawn for several days yet. Lieut. Dixon will work in connection with the United States Marshal Bennett in making arrests.

BRITISH TROOPS MUTINY.

Garrison Terrorizes Inhabitants and Raided Town.

London, Jan. 31.—The West Indian troops stationed at the island of St. Helena where General Cronje and a large number of Boers are held prisoners, mutinied Jan. 2, raided the town terrorized the inhabitants, injured many of them, defied their officers and were only finally subdued when faced by the muzzles of rifles. The censor suppressed the news, but the Associated Press has received the story by mail. The trouble began with a row the night of Jan. 1 between some blue jackets and a party of West Indians. On the following night the West Indians broke out of barracks and raided the town with clubs and razors tied to sticks. They ran amuck, cutting and beating women and children and men indiscriminately, and attacked the Sailors' Rest, tearing out the doors and windows.

GIVES FIFTY-YEAR FRANCHISE

South Milwaukee Council Votes Grant to Milwaukee Street-Car Line.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 31.—The common council of South Milwaukee late last night voted to the Milwaukee Street Railway company a franchise for fifty years. There has been a long fight on the part of the people to prevent being tied up until the middle of the century, but the company won. The franchise carries with it a ten years' lighting contract.

FARM RUINED BY ANTHRAX.

All Live Stock and Poultry of Anton
Brotz at Winchester, Wis., Killed.

Oshkosh, Wis., Jan. 31.—The farm of Anton Brotz, in the town of Winchester, has suffered a visitation of malignant anthrax, and in two weeks he has lost two horses, ten head of cattle, forty chickens, fifteen geese, a number of turkeys and ducks, and a flock of sheep. Brotz moved from Wittenberg to Winchester and shipped his stock by rail, and it is thought that the cars were infected with anthrax. The family has been quarantined.

TELL OF ABUSES AT AN INSANE ASYLUM

Witness Before Investigating Board at West Salem, Wis., Gives Instance of Official Neglect.

West Salem, Wis., Jan. 31.—Today's session of the McKnown Insane asylum investigation has brought out most startling testimony. Miss Olive Gardner of Baraboo stated that while an employee she knew of a woman breaking her leg and being left unattended until the next day, when a surgeon set the fracture. She said that the patient died a short time later of blood poisoning. Others testified that that the Lyden boys who are the chief complainants in the case, were themselves guilty of cruelty to patients giving examples of choking and assaulting.

GOULD ORDER SIGNED

Trustees Directed Not to Pay Countess of Castellane Her Income
Pending Suit.

New York, Jan. 31.—Justice Beech in the supreme court today signed the formal order directing the trustees of the estate of the late Jay Gould not to pay over any moneys to Anna, Countess de Castellane, more than $200,000 a year, pending the trial of the suit brought by Anton J. Dittmar as assignee of Asher Wertheimer, a London dealer in antiques, to recover $385,000.

TEXAS MAY OWN OIL.

State Likely to Seize the Great Lucas
Gusher.

Austin, Tex., Jan. 31.—The oil from the great Lucas gusher, near Beaumont, may become the property of the state of Texas. State Land Commissioner Charles Reagan yesterday discovered that the public free school land act, passed by the legislature in 1883, contains a provision that all oils and minerals found on school lands on and after the date of passage of that law shall belong to the state. Nearly all the lands in that section of East Texas, which is embraced in the new oil fields, belonged to the school fund and have since been sold. The state still owns large tracts of lands in the prospective oil region of East Texas, and the state land office is being overwhelmed with applications from parties who desire to purchase or lease such lands. Under the law no increase in the price of these lands can be made by the land commissioners. The charter of the Beaumont Beyer Oil company of Beaumont, with a capital stock of $1,000,000, was filed in the secretary of state's office yesterday. Its purpose is to construct and operate oil and gas pipe lines, storage tanks, etc.

McKinley Sends a Wreath.

London, Jan. 31.—Wreaths ordered by the queen's funeral by McKinley, Ambassador Choate and Mrs. Garfield which will be sent to Windsor tomorrow are the only official tributes from the United States. The president's wreath is eight feet in diameter with a band two feet wide of Jersey lilies. The wreath is composed of white lilies, white roses and lilies of the valley. Florist Green says that it is the finest that he ever saw and is in accord with the president's own design.

DRUNKEN YAQUIS' CARNIVAL.

Indians Hold Mining Camp of La Cananea
Three Days.

Tucson, Ariz., Jan. 31.—La Cananea, the mining camp of the Green Consolidated Mining company in Sonora, was held for three days by a band of Yaqui Indians and the people of the camp were at the mercy of the Indians. It seems that a large number of Yaquis who are employed at the camp got drunk when paid and purchased all the mescal in camp. The Mexican police were driven from the camp and held outside by a number of the Yaquis. Their guns were taken from them and the Yaquis also took guns away from Americans who attempted to interfere with them. The Indians held high carnival for three days and ran the camp to suit themselves. There were a number of serious cutting affairs, but no one was killed. The Americans set about to quiet the Indians and sober them, and with the assistance of Mexican cavalrymen, were successful in quelling the drunken rebellion.

$60,000 FOR HAMBURG

The Great Stallion Sold in New York
Yesterday to Millionaire
W. C. Whitney.

New York, Jan. 31.—Hamburg, surnamed the "Great," son of Hanover, grandson of Hindoo, the flower of the famous Bitter Root stud, and the first of the thorough breeds brought together by the late Marcus Daly at a cost of more than $1,000,000, was sold under the auctioneer's hammer in Madison Square Garden last night for $60,000 to William C. Whitney. The price was a sharp disappointment to the 5,000 men and women who had gathered in the expectation of seeing the $100,000 paid for St. Blaise by Charles Reed a few years ago exceeded and the American record thereby broken.

FOR IMMEDIATE STATEHOOD.

Residents of the Two Territories Make Demands on Congress.

Guthrie, O. T., Jan. 31.—Immediate statehood was demanded of congress in an enthusiastic convention called to order here by Sidney E. Clark of Oklahoma City, chairman of the statehood executive committee. Every county in both territories was well represented. Ex-Senator Havens of Enid was elected temporary chairman and made an eloquent plea for statehood. The 200 or more delegates here are unanimous for statehood at the earliest minute possible. The majority of them are for single statehood for Oklahoma, although the minority, who favor both territories being included in one state, are aggressive enough to make their claims have weight.

MADE INSANE BY FEAR.

Attempt to Kidnap a Child Makes Her a Maniac.

Central City, S. D., Jan. 31.—Little Myrtle Stanley, daughter of Mrs. W. C. Stanley, formerly of Denver, who several years ago procured a divorce from her husband, is a raving maniac, having been made such by reason of an attempt to kidnap her. A stranger yesterday delivered a letter to the girl. The letter was signed "Papa." The writer said he intended to get Myrtle at all hazards. The child started to run across the street to her mother, when a man, who is said to be Stanley, grasped her. With a shriek the child became unconscious, and when she opened her eyes again she was a maniac. Bystanders made an attack upon the man, who was saved by the arrival of the police.

Boy Hung on a Wind Mill.

Campbell'sport, Wis., Jan. 31.—Barthol Hall, the 17 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hall of the town of Ashford was hung in a most peculiar way. He went up the windmill on his father's farm to oil the running gear. There was a strong wind blowing at the time and the mill was running at full speed. The boy's scarf got caught in the gearing and wound so tight that the boy was strangled to death before assistance could reach him.

Topeka Joints Today.

Topeka, Kas., Jan. 31.—With a mob of five hundred following her Mrs. Carrie Nation visited several Topeka saloons this morning and warned the proprietors that she would return next week and demolish their places of business.

Two policemen saw that she was not molested either by the crowd or the joints. At each place she visited she was warned by the guards to attempt no damage.

Mrs. Isabel Brown of Wichita, Mrs. Jennie Goodwin of Topeka acted as the smasher's right and left bowers. After completing her tour Mrs. Nation went to Washburn college to lecture to those who volunteered to Display Saturday.

PLANS FOR PUBLIC SERVICE

London, Jan. 30.—Saturday's funeral procession in London, as indicated by war office orders this morning will be a most gorgeous military pageant. Detachments of forty regiments, with an almost equal number of distinctive uniforms, embracing all arms of the service, will make a constantly changing picture.

The uniforms of all of the great armies of the world will appear, for in addition to the brilliant entourages of the visiting kings and princely envoys there will be the military attaches of the embassies and legations.

Guns Will Boom Slowly.

All the field marshals of the British army able to endure the fatigue will ride with their staffs. The naval corps will also take part in the procession, which will be two miles long.

The war office directs that Beethoven's and Chopin's funeral marches only shall be played. From the time the coffin reaches London to its departure guns will boom slowly in Hyde Park.

Year's Rent for Single Windows.

Householders along the route are asking a year's rent for a single window. A member of the United States embassy sent an agent to secure a window for his family, but neither official influence nor anything else could procure a small window even on a side street for less than £100, and places of fair vantage have already been engaged at prices prohibited to any but millionaires.

Business Suspended Saturday.

At the privy council meeting this morning the king signed a proclamation suspending business Saturday throughout the United Kingdom. The closing down will be so complete that even restaurants and saloons will be shut up for four or five hours in the middle of the day. Some of the afternoon newspapers will not be published Saturday.

Plans for the Services.

Cowes, Jan. 31.—The service at Windsor on Saturday will be conducted by the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of Winchester and the Dean of Windsor. The Archbishop of York and the Bishop of Oxford will be present.

The interment on Monday will be conducted by the Bishop of Winchester and the Dean of Windsor.

The service in St. George's chapel will begin at two o'clock. The body is expected to arrive at Windsor at 1:30 p. m. The route to the chapel which occupies half an hour, will be lined with troops, two deep, the Eton Volunteers participating with the guards.

Ordinary funeral Service.

The service will be the ordinary service used for the burial of the dead, with special music. The choir will sing from the altar steps, whence also the Garter king-of-arms will announce the decease of the sovereign and all her rights and titles.

Accommodation has been observed on the left of the coffin for the princesses. The king and the other crowned heads will stand at the head.

Rev. R. C. Denison will go to Milwaukee today to make an address to the young ladies of Milwaukee-Dow-ner college.

SORROWFUL STORY OF LIFE'S CHANGES

Horatio N. Davis, Father of Cushman K. Davis, is in Absolute Want.

The United States senate recently passed a bill recommending an increase of pension to Horatio N. Davis, father of the late Cushman K. Davis, senator from Minnesota. The report on the bill was suppressed in the senate but the house committee on pensions in recommending its passage secured a copy of the senate report and had it printed a part of which is given as follows:

"The beneficiary under this bill is Horatio N. Davis, late captain and commissary of subsistence United States volunteers, father of the late Senator Cushman K. Davis of Minnesota. Captain Davis had an honorable military service, and not, withstanding he sustained disabilities in the army, he did not apply for a pension until the year 1892, when he was pensioned at the rate of $12 a month. He has now reached the age of 88 years, his wife's age being 85, and they are left absolutely without property their only income being the $12 per month pension which he receives. Captain Davis' health is far from being strong and his wife is very feeble. It is not to be presumed that either of them will live many years. He has been compelled to leave his home in St. Paul where he has taken care of his late son and go to Yankton, S. D., to live with a married daughter."

Mr. Davis came to Rock from Waukesha county where he was active in county affairs. His son, the late Cushman K. Davis, was a graduate of Carroll college, Waukesha. Mr. Davis served several terms as chairman of the county board and was three times elected mayor of Beloit.

Reference to the blue books of 1870 shows that Mr. Davis was elected to the senate in 1872 and '74, the official term then being two years instead of four.

He succeeded the late Hon. C. G. Williams and was followed by Hon. Hamilton Richardson, having served four years at a time when Rock county comprised a district by itself. It is a sad commentary on the mutability of human life that this man who during his halcyon days held high offices of trust and honor should now in his advanced years have to drink of the bitter cup of dependence and poverty.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

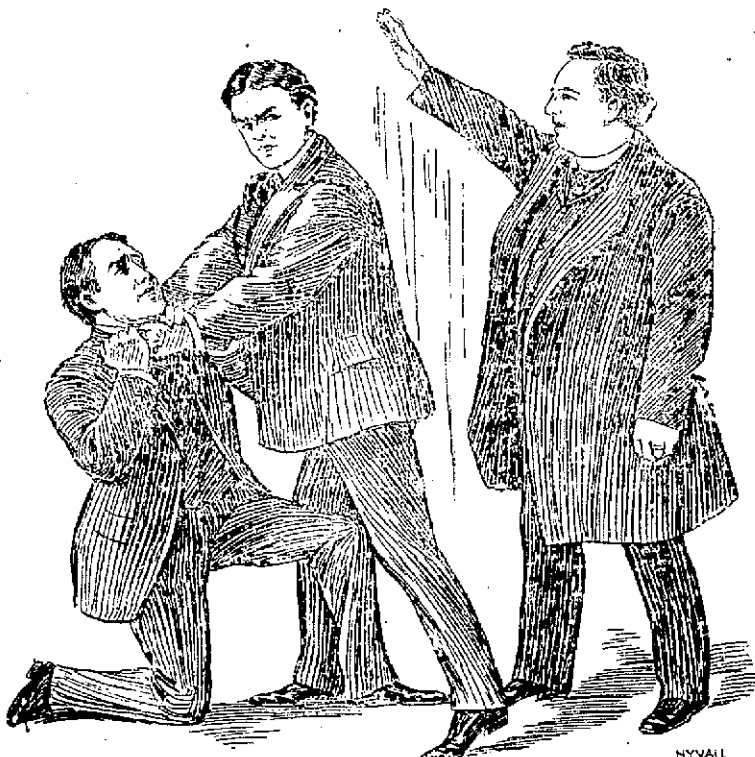

The well-known and popular Irish actor, Mr. Daniel Sully, surrounded by a capable company, will appear at the Myers Grand tonight in an entirely new role in which he has been appearing with great success in New York and Boston. Those who have admired and loved Mr. Sully in his genial, whole-souled Irish characterizations will find no cause to regret his laying aside his secular garments and assuming the habiliments of the parish priest. He is the same lovable man still and his vestments seem to have given him a higher grasp on the human affections. There is nothing to offend in the Parish Priest. It treats of those subjects nearest the heart tenderly; and withal is predated by that delightful comedy of which Mr. Sully is so great an exponent. Its exquisite sentiment brings tears to the heart but before they can reach the eyes Mr. Sully has banished them by his irresistible humor. The love story is a pretty one yet forcibly told and holds the attention until the drop of the curtain.

Sir Henry Irving witnessed a performance of William Gillette's latest success, "Sherlock Holmes," at the Garrick theatre last season in the beginning of its long run and was so confident of its success abroad that he booked it for an entire year at his London lyceum theatre beginning

Trinity Church Supper

The St. Agnes Guild of Trinity church, served a fifteen-cent supper last evening from 5 to 8 o'clock. The menu consisted of scalloped potatoes, baked beans, cold meat, Boston brown bread, tea, coffee, pickles, and three kinds of cake. The room was warm and comfortable, the supper well cooked and nicely served and the patronage was liberal, as it should be.

Church suppers are a great institution, where the customer as a rule gets half as much again or more than he would anywhere else. Fitzgerald, their comedian, is a wonder in the comedian line and has been with Joe Murphy for five seasons previous to this his first appearance in Repertoire. The opening, The Fatal Scar, is a brand new play, not an old chestnut with a new name and has never been played in Janesville. This is a positive fact as the author travels with the company. Popular prices will prevail at 10, 20 and 30 cents. With ladies admitted free on Monday night only.

Senator Platt of New York dropped his glasses in the senate the other day. He was looking helplessly on the floor for them, when up stepped a page and, like a youthful Herrmann, extracted them from the senator's beard, in which they had caught in falling.

An Eskimo Baby.

An Eskimo baby is born fair, except for a dark, round spot on the small of the back, varying in size from a three-penny-bit to a shilling. From this center-head of color the dark tint gradually spreads till the toddling Eskimo is as beautifully, and as completely, and as highly colored as a well-smoked meerschaum pipe. The same thing happens among the Japanese.

LOVE.

I am Love,
So much referred to
In the poets' daily grind,
And the most prevailing
Affliction of mankind.
I affect the seat
Of wisdom, the mind.
Thus you will see
A remedy for me
Is hard to find.
A disease, though
Not contagious,
In certain stages,
Seems outrageous,
Showing up all foolish
Moves to beat the band.
I am a red-hot number
And from previous plans asunder
Wilson I land.
I hail from everywhere,
Coming unawares,
Both day and night,
Claiming victims left and right,
Because I am only
An affection.
The lesser finds in me
Material for gloom.
Yet in the world's affairs
I am a great power
And tower
Above many influences.
I am Love,
That game of Cupid's,
Mysterious and queer,
And I flourish like
A green bay tree
On this terrestrial sphere,
Described, portrayed and pictured
On the stage,
Current fiction teems
With tales of me
On every page.
Some would call
The novel rot
Unless I figured in the plot.
No one is exempt from me,
Verily.
What fools these mortals be!

Explaining Things.

"What is this here diplomacy?" asked the grocery loafer.
"It is like this here," said the grocer. "For instance, if I wanted to call you a liar, I'd just do so right out, but if I wanted to be diplomatic, I'd go at it sorter roundabout an' jist say to the surroundin' air that while I wasn't namin' no names, I reely did believe that a certain red nosed, squint eyed cuss that had et at least ten pound of my best cheese without ever payin' a cent was not so keerful with the truth as he orter be. See?"—Indianapolis Press.

No one would ever be bothered with constipation if everyone knew how naturally and quickly Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the stomach and bowels. Cures croup, sore throat, pulmonary troubles—Monarch over pain of every sort. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. It's a mistake to imagine that itching piles can't be cured; a mistake to suffer a day longer than you can help. Doan's Ointment brings instant relief and permanent cure. Eruptions

Dry, moist, scaly tetter, all forms of eczema or salt rheum, pimples and other cutaneous eruptions proceed from humors, either inherited, or acquired through defective digestion and assimilation.

To treat these eruptions with drying medicines is dangerous.

The thing to do is to help the system discharge the humors, and to strengthen it against their return.

Hood's Sarsaparilla permanently cured J. G. Hines, Franks, Ill., of eczema, from which he had suffered for some time; and Miss Alvina Wolter, Box 212, Algona, Wis., of pimples on her face and back and chafed skin on her body, by which she had been greatly troubled. There are more testimonials in favor of this great medicine than can be published.

The pillow is the curse of man.—German Proverb.

There is little doubt that the above is true. A nation that is rugged in its simplicity and strength of character disdains these soft inducements to rest. On the other hand, the indolent and pleasure loving countries could hardly exist without them. In the New England farmhouse the cushion is almost an unknown quantity. Perhaps in the "best room" it may be found, a prim, stuffy embroidered affair, executed by the hands of the daughter of the house. It rests in a very upright position at one end of the horsehair sofa. It is made to look at and admire, but never, never to lie upon! In Turkey, on the contrary, the pillows and the divans are the whole furnishing of the room, gorgeous in fabric and color, unnumbered in quantity, soft, alluring. It is no wonder the Turks are the laziest people in the world. But here comes the serious part. According to my argument, then, we are degenerating. Never before have beautiful pillows been in such demand, and never have so many been used. Are we, then, becoming weaker as a nation? And shall we also become victims of the pillow? I suspect not, and I will whisper in your ear my reason. The new cushions are almost without exception made to look at.

It would be an utter brute, for instance, who would have the heart to lay his frowze on the following creation: The background is of pale green satin on which appear to be scattered carelessly handfuls of autumn leaves. A close examination reveals the fact that the leaves actually grew on maple and oak trees. They were pressed in books and then glued lightly to the satin surface. Then they were covered by a bit of white silk illusion, and this was carefully embroidered around the edges with red brown or green silk to match the edge of the leaf. It is a gorgeous cushion and one of the latest fads. Fads! How I hate the word. It symbolizes all that is silly and affected, but what a blessing it is to shopkeepers and what a mint of money it sends jingling into their pockets!

There is the artificial flower craze, for instance. Would you believe it, it has actually struck the cushions?

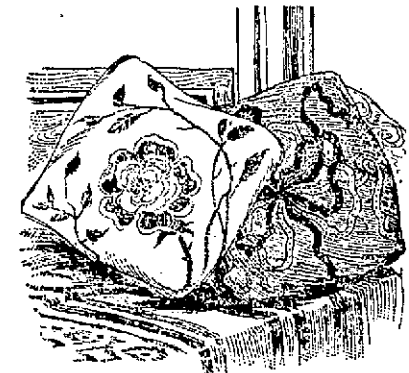

"What color is your room, madam?"

"Pink and white."

"Then you certainly want a rose cushion."

And you see a square of pale tinted satin with a huge pink rose applied in the middle, with the large velvet petals stitched down flat and the tuft center of crimped silk left to stick upright, to tickle your ear if you should feel inclined to lay your weary head upon it, which you don't! Stunning, of course! And the pansy and chrysanthemum cushions are even more so. I forgot to say that the leaves and stems of the flowers are all done in flat embroidery, and so are the buds. It is only the one large central flower which is, so to speak, in bas relief.

Two striking affairs are made of lace. One is called the bowknot and the other the patchwork pillow. In the patchwork lace figures, black, white and yellow conventional flowers, bowknots, diamonds, etc., are set over pale pink, blue or yellow satin pieces of the same shape, and these are applied on a background of white or black silk, giving a very odd effect. The lace bowknot consists of three appliqued bows and ends of white, black and yellow lace. It gives an effect like a monogram in which each letter is distinct and yet all three are mingled gracefully.

"They marked that $6 at Charnock's," remarked a friend of mine, "and, if you please, I made mine out of three remnants of dress trimmings applied on a section of my old orange silk petticoat."

What in the world, I ask you, would become of the shopkeepers if there were more girls like her?

Well, to return to the subject, there's the verse pillow, for instance, not serious verse, I am sorry to say. "The tendency of the age doesn't run in that direction." No, some flippant doggerel or perhaps a snatch from a popular eon or cozier song. The verse is embroidered crookedwise, and on either side are figures done in paint and outline stitch supposed to illustrate the prevailing sentiment. For instance, that classic:

I've 'er pucker next my 'eart
Dressed all up so fine an smart
In a jacket trimmed with artificial fur,
An it makes a fuller feel
Kinder prouder of 'imself
To be loved by a gal like 'er!

It is illustrated in this wise: Over the verse floats a miniature of the lady in the famous jacket, and below at the left kneels the ardent cockney looking upward with one hand on his 'eart. I may add as further evidence of the realistic wave which has struck pillow land that the many buttocks on his trousers and coat are real little gilt ones. No, I do not think that any sins of laziness will be laid to the share of this pillow. It must be the same designer who evolved out of her inner consciousness the Indian pillow with the real bead necklace around the brave's neck and the danseuse with her abbreviated skirt set full of scratchy spangles.

By the way, these Indian pillows are all the rage. They come printed in cotton and painted or burned on leather. They are supplanting somewhat the "vice" pillow. Don't start in horror. I am merely quoting a remark I overheard at the cushion counter. The speaker had just been fingering a pile of pillow designs for college men's rooms. They represented edifying scenes, such as a pile of cards and poker chips surrounding an emblematical "kitty" or a crowd of men around a large beer stein with the choice motto:

While we're young we'll have our fling,
So let us drink and let us sing!

"Dear me!" she remarked. "If women have vices, at least they don't embroider them."

Which is true. They are not yet afflicted with the desire of advertising their badness. But patience! Perhaps even this masculine attribute will be theirs in time.

Land of the Powder Puff.

In every country where women make a pretense to elegance you will find the little powder puff. It is useless for reformers to preach against it. Their own shily faces counteract any effect their words might produce. In warm countries especially it is valued as an aid to beauty, and Cuba in particular has gained the name of "The Land of the Powder Puff."

Even when bread was so scarce that thousands of people were literally starving, there was no lack of face powder even among the poorest. Every Cuban woman, from the octogenarian grand dame to the little peasant girl of 6 or 7 summers, regards powder as an absolute necessity to her attractiveness and far more important than mere soap and water.

In every Cuban school teachers and pupils alike are well powdered, and in every desk is to be found a powder box. In factories and shops where women are employed, directly the hands of the clock point to the hour of the luncheon, every girl stops work and, getting out her powder, proceeds to adorn herself.

Unique Paperweight.

It remained for the Prince of Wales to startle the world of fashion with a new fad in paperweights, but it is safe to say that he will have few imitators. His numerous letters are held in place by the mummified hand of a daughter of one of the pharaohs. This is without doubt the most curious desk ornament in existence.

Elephants as Nursemaids.

Siamese mothers intrust their children to elephants, who are most careful of their little charges. If danger threatens, an elephant will gently lift the child with its trunk on to its back out of harm's way.

New Albany, Ind., Jan. 31.—William Roosevelt, Jr., formerly of this city, was arrested at Corydon charged with fraudulently using the mails. Matthews of Indianapolis, who claims that she was a victim of a how-to-make-money-easy-at-home advertisement issued by Roosevelt. He received many letters at the Corydon postoffice and was doing a thriving business.

To Issue $5,000,000 of Bonds.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 31.—By a practically unanimous vote the municipal assembly passed a bill providing for the issuance of $5,000,000 of bonds, bearing 3 1/4 per cent interest, for the world's fair to be held in St. Louis in 1903 to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Louisiana purchase. The measure now goes to the mayor for his signature. The sum will supplement the $5,000,000 secured on popular subscriptions in St. Louis and a like amount to be appropriated by congress.

THE PRIMARY LAW.

The much-discussed primary election bill is now before the legislature, and its extreme length and numerous provisions will require time and careful thought to digest.

A casual reading of the bill will suggest to the average mind that it is a machine-made, not simple, more compact in some respects than the old caucus and convention methods, because in the hands of a limited number of leaders.

There is nothing about the bill that will have a tendency to prevent the aspirant working for office, in working in advance of the primary election, and resorting to any methods that he may deem expedient in securing the nomination.

In fact the law evidently contemplates that the man with the best organization shall have the advantage. Under the law it would not be very difficult for Milwaukee to put up an entire slate for the state ticket, and secure two percent of the endorsement of eleven other counties. Combinations of this kind seem to be invited, and the combine with the longest purse and best organization would be likely to win. Thorough work at the voting centers would capture the prizes and the county districts would be so scattered in comparison that their vote would be aimless.

It has always been considered important that a party platform should be adopted before candidates are nominated, so that nominees would understand what principles they would be expected to support.

The new law provides that platforms shall be created by the candidates, after nominations are made. In other words that candidates can adopt any sort of platform they please and the party has no recourse. That is a long stride in the direction of reform. It may work and then again it may not.

The aim of the law is evidently to interest more people in primaries, than under the present system, and thus to purify politics. The aim is a lofty one but largely theoretical.

Political parties like all other organizations have always had leaders, and always will have. If the leaders are efficient they will be largely self appointed, because the number that aspire to this kind of leadership is extremely limited. The average business man, farmer or citizen, is not a politician and no amount of primary inducements will persuade him to be.

He believes in good government and realizes that well organized parties are necessary to its promotion.

The average voter is a partisan, and it is well for the cause of good government that he is. If intelligent, and the most of them are, he can give a reason for his political faith, and he cares infinitely more for measures than for men.

While he may have a preference for the choice of candidates and work vigorously for the same, he submits cheerfully to the will of the majority and does not join the ranks of the kickers, but goes about his business satisfied.

The vote at the last state election is evidence of the truthfulness of this statement. Party leaders made it possible for Governor La Follette to be nominated without opposition, and the party, prompted by loyalty and principle, ratified the act, forgetting personal preference in the interests of party success. It wasn't the man that won, but it was the party.

And so, in considering the primary election law, the man who fathered it should be lost sight of in the discussion, and the best interests of good government alone considered. It is a republican measure, and as such is partisan. If passed, however, it becomes a general law, affecting all alike.

The legislature has no right to pass the law simply to please the governor. If the law is passed it will stand or fall on its merits alone, and like all other laws, its merits alone should be considered.

There should be no disposition to rush it through the legislature. The measure is too far reaching to be slighted, or passed, without careful thought and calm investigation.

The home constituency, while deprived of voice in the matter, are interested spectators. An expression of public opinion as far as possible will be helpful to every member of the legislature.

Let the measure be freely discussed before action is taken.

The honors bestowed on Emperor William by King Edward, his uncle, are gratifying to all countrymen in both realms, because of the graciousness and kindly consideration shown by his splendid attitude during the sickness and death of Victoria.

BUSINESS PRINCIPLES.

Quite a lively discussion has been going on for some time between the war and treasury departments over the question of government transportation to the Pacific coast.

Since the war with Spain the government has been a very heavy shipper of supplies across the continent. The Southern and Central Pacific railroads have been permitted to monopolize the business, and no question have been asked in regard to rates, because both roads were heavily in debt to the government.

No moneys have been paid out for freight, but the roads have simply been credited with bills as rendered. Secretary Root, of the war department, figured that the debt was not very good, and that every dollar collected on it, was so much money saved, and but little attention was paid to the rates until recently, when the Santa Fe road offered transportation at anywhere from 50 to 75 percent less than was being paid. This brought the matter before a congressional committee, with the result of advertising for bids for future business. The investigation developed the fact that the two southern roads have reduced their indebtedness to a point that makes the government claim good, and makes it possible for us to adopt business principles in the future.

Railroad subsidies are a thing of the past, and the government has paid roundly for its experience. Ship subsidies are now in evidence. The question shows the same lack of business principles that was evidenced in the railroad subsidies years ago. If the measure is passed, the government will be spending the people's money for "dead horse" for years to come.

Congress is dealing with trust funds on a large scale, and they are the easiest funds in the world to squander. In handling them all sentiment and personal preference or interest should be abandoned, and the public good alone considered. Every congressman should be held accountable for a wise and intelligent stewardship. The public servant should adopt business principles, in handling public money.

REPEAL THE LAW.

About the first hard work that the Kansas legislature should do, is to repeal the prohibition law. It has always been a farce, but never so apparent as since the crazy Mrs. Nation has been attempting to enforce it.

While prohibitionists have colonized in Kansas for a good many years, there are not enough of them there today to enforce the law and never will be.

Mrs. Nation represents nothing in the way of public sentiment. She is simply a fanatic, upset with one idea. She may succeed in damaging property by methods that would be called lawless in any other state, but she is doing the cause of temperance more harm than good, and outside of a few sympathetic fanatics, she will be denounced by all good people.

Her attack on Governor Stanley was an outrage. She lacks the common sense to know that the governor, or any other official is powerless, unless public sentiment is behind the law.

Mrs. Nation's erratic actions are demoralizing to weak intellects, and will breed insanity among the fanatics. One preacher admires her course so much that he started out the other day with a hatchet to destroy a million saloons. His lunacy was so pronounced that he was locked up and is now a raving maniac.

The Woman's State Temperance organization is now in session at Topeka, and by resolution and a testimonial of $100 said to Mrs. Nation, "We are in sympathy with your work." That is crazy fanaticism bordering on lunacy, and indicates that an epidemic is likely to break out at any time. If it does, it will be more difficult to control than small pox, and will leave more scars.

The Kansas legislature owes it to the peace and good will of the state to repeal its radical prohibition laws, and place on their statute books reasonable measures, that can be enforced. Pennsylvania has the best temperance laws of any state in the Union, and Nebraska, for a wonder, is not far behind in this respect. Kansas will make no mistake in following either, and when that is done, Mrs. Nation will have more time to chop wood and keep house for her much neglected husband.

Carrie Nation clubs are being organized in several states by so-called temperance women, with a view to starting the country and driving the saloons into the sea. The contagion is catching but is not properly named. Carrie Nation is simply a female white cap, more dangerous with her hatchet, than the man with the mask and gun, because of the halo of sentimental nonsense that environs her.

Mrs. Nation has been offered $75 per week to play "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." From her recent experiences she probably does not care for more than one night anywhere near a bar.

When Victoria was crowned queen it took forty-five days for the news to reach this country. The queen's death was announced here several hours before it took place. Surely, this old world is leading a fast life.

It is reported that the teller of Dowle's bank in Chicago, has been kidnapped. It is unfortunate for that city that it was not Dowle himself.

Sen. Hanna, says Meternich, in "L'Aiglon" reminds him of Pettigrew. Something must be wrong with Rost and or Hanna.

The anti-cigarette league might well establish a branch office somewhere in Russia. It is reported that 5,000 cigarettes are smoked daily on the Russian cruiser Varlag.

The Oshkosh statesman must be trying to imitate Napoleon, who said, "The greatest woman of France, is the mother of the largest family."

Congress should relieve future presidents of the temptation of repudiating money.

The reported Aguinaldo interview is bombastic and nonsensical. It smacks of copperhead views, so freely liberated during the recent campaign, by men of the Pettigrew stamp.

Who will look after the common people while Editor Bryan is in Europe?

Teddy will probably spend some time stopping "Jyn's" after he returns home.

PATSEY GRIFFIN IS SENT UP FOR 60 DAYS

Patsy Griffin finished up a ninety day sentence in the county jail the day before yesterday and immediately celebrated his release by getting full of whiskey. He was landed in the city lock-up and brought before Judge Fifield this morning. During his long confinement his hair had been allowed to grow and he could now easily pose as the leader of a wild west show if long hair is one of the requisites. He begged the judge not to send him back to jail and said he would reform. Judge Fifield told him that he had broken his word so often that he had no confidence in him and sent him back to jail for sixty days or to pay a fine of $10 and costs. Patsy was quite abusive when sentence was pronounced and accused the chief of fixing up the sentence beforehand with the judge.

James Lucas and Frank Williams, two young men hailing from Dubuque, Ia., were brought up before Judge Fifield this morning by Chief of Police Hogan and pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing two pair of pants and a pair of shoes from the store of E. Hall on West Milwaukee street last evening.

Both men claimed that they were from Dubuque, Ia., and that they were printers out of a job and were on their way to Minneapolis and were broke and stole the pants and shoes to see if they could raise some money on them to help them on their way. Judge Fifield sentenced them at ninety days at hard labor in the county jail. They will have an easier way of getting to Minneapolis when they get out than at present.

Measuring the Earth.

After nearly thirty years of constant effort and the expenditure of nearly $100,000, scientists have succeeded in accurately measuring the earth. They have learned that its diameter through the equator is 7,926 miles; its height from pole to pole 7,899 miles. The earth, therefore, is flattened at the poles; and while this fact has long been asserted, the actual measurement has removed the question from the domain of doubt.

INCANDESCENT HOUSE LIGHTING.

A few of its advantages are, the ease with which it can be turned on or off by means of switches even from points distant from the lights.

Incandescent light is given off and the light readily lends itself to artistic arrangements and decorations.

In the decoration of a home it is of the greatest importance to consider the kind of light we are to use. If you use a heat and soot producer for illuminating, the paper and housefurnishings should be selected accordingly, for light, paper, carpets or upholstery will be practically ruined in a short time and lace curtains will be oftener a dingy gray than a fresh white.

Any open flame is a bad thing to have in a human habitation. It is consuming air and thus what we primarily exist upon. As the saying is, "It makes the air bad." Those who breathe it makes them sleepy. Malaria is often blamed for this "dread feeling."

Another advantage is the facility with which it can be installed to produce a better diffusion of light.

The old idea of a group of lights in the center of a room has become obsolete. The aim of progressive architects is to so distribute the lights around the room that there will be no shadows cast.

We will always be pleased to consult with prospective lender users about the best arrangement of lights and to give estimates for installing.

Outside connections are made and meters set without expense to customers.

SUPT. OF POOR KENYON CARES FOR ARTHUR PETIT

Taylor Family Delivered Boy Up to the Home Finding Society Agent of Chicago.

HINTED AT THE ROPE AND FIRE BRAND

An Unauthorized and Reckless Intrusion of the Taylor Home is Bitterly Resented—The Family is Held in High Regard—The Touching Little Story Has Created Considerable Comment in Janesville.

Arthur Petit, the white child from the American Home Finding association of Chicago, who was placed with the family of Enoch Taylor, colored, of this city was last evening taken by Rev. G. D. Woods, a representative of the association and has been temporarily placed with Mrs. E. R. O'Neil of High street.

Mr. Kenyon has been instructed by Mr. Woods to keep the boy here for a few days and if possible to find a home for him with good Janesville people. T. S. Nolan took him home with him this noon and then returned him to Mrs. O'Neil where Supt. Kenyon is responsible for him.

Mrs. Taylor is indignant. The most of these facts are confirmatory of the statements made by Mrs. Taylor to a Gazette representative. When seen this morning Mrs. Taylor was in a state bordering on nervous collapse caused by the annoyance to which the family has been subjected in regard to the child. She is a person of much intelligence and tells a straight and reasonable story. Both she and Mr. Taylor were born and raised in Wisconsin, own valuable property, are law-abiding citizens and certainly are entitled to a respectful hearing.

When the application was made to the home for a child for adoption Mrs. Taylor claims that she specified a colored child in the vicinity of twelve years of age—one old enough to carry milk and help some about the place. A young child that would require constant care was not the object sought, and had a colored child been sent of the same age that Arthur is, i.e., seven years, he would not have been accepted.

Was a Misunderstanding. The trouble arose out of a misunderstanding that could easily have occurred. In Mr. Taylor's application he probably specified the color and in the petition did not repeat this stipulation. Mr. Woods in his conversation with Supt. Kenyon said that the petition was backed by the signatures of as good people of this city as any that the association had ever acted upon.

The two gentlemen went last evening to the Taylor home and found the boy very well contented. He was not at all anxious to leave his comfortable quarters but as he was not the one the family desired there was nothing to do but to take him away and find a home for him elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor feel extremely indignant over the treatment they have received from those who certainly must have been ignorant of the facts of the case else they would not have pursued so high-handed a course.

Hints of Rope and Fire Brand.

In talking to the two visitors Mr. Taylor told them how his home had been invaded the night before by a man connected with one of the local courts and armed with no authority. He had demanded the child which was naturally refused for the people with whom he had been placed were authorized to deliver him to no one but an accredited representative of the home. He then hinted at the rope and the fire brand if his demands were not complied with.

Previous to this Mrs. Taylor had written the home explaining why the boy could not be accepted—on account of his color and his tender age, and was awaiting an reply with instructions to return him. In the meantime those who had him in charge were responsible for him, and were acting in good faith and in understanding of their rights and duty in the matter in refusing him to anyone but a representative of the home.

Bright Little Fellow. The boy is described as a bright and intelligent little fellow who deserves a home with good people desiring a child of that age. Mrs. Taylor in speaking of him said: "He was certainly a nice child, but not at all what we wanted. Why would we burden ourselves with a white child when there are plenty of our own race who need a home and to whom we could give and expect from them that affection which usually exists between an adopted child and its parents. Still, I would have resisted to any length any person who came to take him away by force—not that I wanted to keep Arthur but because I would maintain my rights."

"We are law-abiding citizens in every way. I was never before any court. I never took what did not belong to me to the value of a penny. My husband is an upright and honorable man, slow of speech and slow to take offense, but we regard the sanctity of our home just as others do and intend to firmly maintain it."

Held in High Regard. Supt. Kenyon speaks of the family in the highest terms and thus expressed himself: "I have known Enoch Taylor for thirty years. His skin may be dark, but the color stops there; he is white all the rest of the way. In all my acquaintance with him I know nothing to his discredit, and I believe I would trust him as completely as any man in the city of Janesville."

"I think that the family has suffered shameful treatment and I share in the indignation that they feel. Moreover I would sooner leave a child in that home than in hundreds of white homes I know in this city."

Cosy, Comfortable Home. Mr. Taylor has two grown sons, Grant, who has left the city, and Fred, who is employed at the Grand hotel. Mrs. Taylor is a second wife and has no children of her own. They have an adopted daughter twelve or fourteen years of age whom they took from the Sparta home five years ago.

They own their home which has a good piece of land about it and rent some in addition. Mr. Taylor does general farming and makes a specialty of garden vegetables. He is well spoken of by all who know him. The house is cosy, comfortable and displays evidences of good housekeeping and much taste in the interior appointments. The barns and out-buildings how care and all the signs indicate a prosperous and well-ordered home.

Case Attracts Attention. The case has attracted wide spread attention and much sympathy has been felt and expressed. Now that the facts have been given in detail and all corroborated by unimpeachable testimony the injustice done an innocent and well intentioned family will be understood by the community, though a misunderstanding that might very easily arise a well meant deed was distorted so as to appear in an unfavorable light, and they condemn the unwarranted attempt to set the law aside and inaugurate the reign of violence such as obtains in Kansas.

Mr. Sade who occupies the house had gone into the basement in the rear of the kitchen to see if he could thaw out the pipe to the pump which had frozen up. The pipe was in a box in the side of the basement and was filled with dry leaves to protect the pipe and prevent it from freezing.

Sade had a lighted lamp in his hand and as he shoved it into the box where the pipe was he knocked the chimney off. The blaze of the lamp came in contact with the leaves and in a second the flames were roaring up between the partitions of the rooms above. An alarm was turned in immediately and Mr. Sade secured several pails of water and held the fire in check until the department arrived. The house was damaged to the extent of about one hundred and fifty dollars and was fully insured. Mr. Sade's loss was a small one which was fortunate for him as he had no insurance. The pump was thawed out in first class shape when the fire was extinguished.

The house is a frame structure with two large additions on the back and is owned by Frank Sweeney, a conductor on the Chicago & Northwestern railroad. When the department arrived a large amount of smoke and some fire was coming out of the addition in the rear of the upright and was between the ceiling and the roof. After about half an hour's work with the extinguisher and a small hose the blaze was extinguished.

HOME OF PIONEER AND HOME OF TODAY

COMPARISON OF FARM LIFE AT FARMERS' CONVENTION.

Resolution Opposing the Subsidy Bill and Irrigation of Arid Lands as Proposed by Congress is Voted Down at the Milton Junction Farmers' Meeting Now in Session.

Milton Junction, Jan. 31.—Two hundred and fifty people were in attendance at the convention yesterday. Rev. C. M. Starkweather offered prayer after which Mrs. Emma Thomas of Milton read an interesting paper "Then and Now; or the March of Progress on the Farm and in the Home." A vivid description of the pioneer home was given in contrast with the rural home of today. The cooking of the meals in the old fire place was widely different from the steel range that the good housewife uses at the present time; so that with all the modern conveniences home and its surroundings were as much appreciated as highly in pioneer times when the chinks between the logs were filled with mud as does the farmer of the twentieth century in the home planned by the skilled architect. Prof. King of Madison followed with a talk on farm buildings laying stress on the barn and how it should be constructed—illustrating same by diagrams on charts—claiming that ventilation and cleanliness are essential for the health of the stock. After the discussion of this subject the convention adjourned for dinner.

The afternoon session was opened by the quartet and the report of the committee on resolutions followed: "Resolved that we are opposed to the subsidy bill and the irrigation of arid lands as proposed by congress."

Phillip Marquart defended the resolution while Mr. Blaisdel of Janesville took the negative. After a ten minutes' discussion by each gentleman the vote was called for by Chairman McEwan. The resolution was voted down by an overwhelming majority.

Mrs. A. M. Glenn then read a paper on "Country vs. City Life."

Dr. Mills paper on the care of children in schools was thoroughly discussed by the members as the subject was of great interest.

Following the discussion it was moved and carried "that it be published in the leading county paper." Thus the readers of the Gazette will be permitted to read the article in a later issue.

In the evening an entertainment was given for the benefit of the convention by Miss Allie Button-Cole assisted by Miss Alice Farnsworth of Janesville and the Cremona quartet.

BEASTS DIE IN ZOO FIRE.

In Cages Unable to Escape the Flames.

EXPLOSIONS ADD TO PANIC.

Two Lions Shot to Prevent Their Reaching the Crowd Outside—Women Performers at Baltimore Flee—Loss of Animals Is 200,000.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 31.—Caged and chained animals to the number of 150 perished last night in a fire which destroyed Frank C. Bostock's zoo, located in the Cyclorama building. Two lions, maddened by the flames, had all but broken from their cage when fleeing employees shot them to prevent their escape to the street, where they would have vented their rage on the spectators. In addition to the animals a large collection of birds died in the flames. Of all the animals on exhibition only an elephant and a camel, two donkeys, and a pack of hounds escaped. The fire, which is supposed to have originated from a defective electric light wire on the outside of the building, spread with such rapidity that in a few minutes the entire shell-like structure was aflame.

Rush for the Exit. It was only a few minutes after the close of the evening performance when the fire was discovered, and the spectators, who were fewer than usual because of the bad weather, were in the aisles. A rush for the exits followed, but the smallness of the crowd prevented any serious injuries in the panic. In the dressing-rooms Miss Chiquita and other female performers were changing their show clothes for street attire, but the rapid approach of the flames compelled them to flee half clad. The trainers rushed to save their charges, but already the fire had gained such headway that the animals were beyond help. The cages were surrounded by the flames, and in a few cases could the keepers approach the imprisoned beasts.

Animals in Wild Frenzy. The lions were leaping against the bars, which bent under the strain, so the order was given that they be shot to prevent them reaching the crowded street. Almost human shrieks and cries from the animals went up as the flames drew near to them, but their agony was short, as within twenty minutes the building was in ruins. The few animals that escaped owe their lives to the fact that they were held in merely by wire fencing, which was clipped in time to let them out.

Calcium Tanks Explode. Early in the fire several calcium light tanks exploded, adding to the excitement. The proximity of the Music Hall and the new Mount Royal Station led to the call for the greater portion of the city fire department, but the flames were confined to the building in which they originated. It is estimated that the loss on the animals will reach $200,000, on which there is $50,000 insurance. The building, it is believed, was worth about $20,000.

Catch Rodermund and Confine Him. Milwaukee, Jan. 31.—Dr. M. J. Rodermund, who created so much excitement in Appleton by exposing himself wilfully to smallpox, was arrested here and is now in the isolation hospital. Rodermund came here from Chicago. He was very indignant at his treatment here and threatened to use all legal methods against the officers and to get out of quarantine. The health authorities are not alarmed at his threats and say that he will have plenty of time to lay out a plan of campaign, as this time he will not be allowed to escape until the period of danger is passed.

Devery May Lose His Job. Albany, N. Y., Jan. 31.—The New York city police bill has passed the senate. This is the bill providing for a single-headed police commission. By its terms it practically legislates Chief of Police Devery out of office. While the mayor has the appointment of the police commissioner under this bill, the appointee may at any time be removed by the governor. His term is five years and his salary $7,500. He has two deputies, which he himself shall choose.

Fine for a Briber. Jackson, Miss., Jan. 31.—In the Circuit Court yesterday, Gibson, the Indiana contractor on trial for an attempt to bribe Gov. Longino, withdrew his plea of not guilty and entered a plea of guilty by agreement with the prosecution. He was fined $1,000 and costs. The court agreed to set aside the forfeiture of his $5,000 bond. Gibson leaves for home with $3,000 in his pockets.

Threat to Murder Vanderlip. Washington, D. C., Jan. 31.—Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Vanderlip received a threatening letter, purporting to come from a clerk in the treasury department, and warning him that unless he mended his ways as a strict disciplinarian he would meet the fate of Auditor Morris, who was killed in his office a few weeks ago. Mr. Vanderlip turned the letter over to Chief Wilkie of the secret service.

Stranger to Him. Kankakee, Ill., Jan. 31.—Patrick Burns, who for thirty-five years has flagged trains at a local crossing of the Big Four railroad, beats the man who never saw a train of cars. Although he has always lived within a few blocks of the stream and can see perfectly, Mr. Burns has never seen the Kankakee river.

Soldiers Murder and Rob. Berlin, Jan. 31.—A special dispatch to the Cologne Volks Zeitung from China relates horrible details about the warfare in that country and says: "We hope the awful conditions will soon cease. The depravity and bestiality also among our troops is enormously on the increase. Large numbers of old soldiers are sentenced to long terms in the penitentiary and jail for murder, burglary and other crimes. Our losses are certainly greater than way than by death. Diseases are still rampant, especially typhus. Dysentery is decreasing. During November there were nine deaths from diseases in Pao-tungfu alone and also two from powder explosions. One magazine containing 450,000 pounds of powder was blown up, but only one man was killed and three men wounded."

Shot His Captain Dead. Strasburg, Jan. 31.—At Leerschingen, Lorraine, Lieut. Rueger of the 17th regiment, was arrested for the murder of Capt. Adams, his superior officer. The affair was the outcome of a wrestling match that was got up by the officers of the regiment for the purpose of passing the time. The wrestling led to a dispute in the course of which Capt. Adams struck Staff Surgeon Rueger in the face. A duel was arranged for next day, but, in the meantime, Lieut. Rueger, the doctor's brother, went up to his captain's room and shot him, killing him instantly. The lieutenant is likely to suffer the extreme military penalty.

Knox Engages Dewet. London, Jan. 31.—Lord Kitchener reports to the war office as follows: "Dewet has been engaged by Knox, forty miles north of Thabanchu. No details. Dewet intends again attempting an invasion of Cape Colony. Smith-Dorrien has returned from Carolina, having dispersed the Boers. A force of Boers this morning entered Berisburg and damaged two mines. Commandant Marais is among the prisoners taken." A Cape Town dispatch says Olive Schreiner, the author, and her husband are practically prisoners in their home. They are not allowed to leave the Hanover district, which is under martial law.

Family Freezing in Street. St. Joseph, Mich., Jan. 31.—At midnight Deputy Sheriff Tennant discovered Andrew Goins and his destitute family encamped about a fire in Botham avenue. They had scarcely clothes enough to cover them. The mercury was 4 below zero. The three small children were all but frozen. The family was moved to the county hospital. A boy and a girl, aged 5 and 7, may die. Goins' home was in Pawpaw, and he was on his way to Michigan City.

Mother Loses Her Life. Bessmer, Mich., Jan. 31.—Mrs. Bessmer, who saved six of her children and was badly burned trying to rescue the last two from her burning house, died yesterday. The mother and two children will be buried in one grave.

OUR WORKING GIRLS. HOW TO HELP THEM. Life to the most favored is not always full of sunshine, but to the average American girl or woman who is obliged to work for her living, and, perhaps to help others at home, life is often a heavy drag in consequence of illness. Women who work, especially those who are constantly on their feet, are peculiarly liable to the development of organic troubles, and should particularly heed the first manifestations, such as headache, pains in the lower limbs and lower part of the stomach, irregular and painful monthly periods, faintness, weakness, loss of appetite and sleep. The young lady whose portrait was Miss Ella Brennen, East Rochester, Ohio, publish herewith had all these symptoms, and in addition leucorrhoea, and was cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. First, she wrote a letter to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., describing her trouble, received in reply accurate instructions what to do to get well, and now wishes Mrs. Pinkham to use her name to convince others that they may be cured as she was. Mrs. Pinkham extends the same helping hand, free of charge or obligation, to every ailing woman in America. If you are sick you are foolish not to write to her, it costs you nothing, and she is sure to help you. Don't wait until it is too late—write to-day.

IS SLOW TO GIVE UP CUBA. Congress Discusses Question of a Protectorate. WHAT CUBANS ARE DOING. It Is Asserted They are Preparing a Constitution Which in Every Detail Ignores the Existence of the United States—Subsidy Bill.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 31.—The question as to whether the United States shall permit Cuba to be a free, independent and sovereign country or insist upon the exercise of a protectorate has been discussed by members of both houses of congress. Opinion is widely divided. Some members think that under the resolution passed in 1898 the United States pledged itself to give Cuba full sovereignty and that it cannot now exercise a protectorate unless the Cubans invite the United States to exercise such authority. Senators and representatives alike, however, agree that the Cubans in preparing a constitution which in every detail ignores the existence of the United States have shown themselves unmindful of their obligations to this country. Members of the committee on foreign relations are positive in the opinion that congress has no jurisdiction over Cuba in the face of the joint resolution recognizing the independence of Cuba, approved April 20, 1898. What the president is being advised to do is to lock up the copy of the Cuban constitution when it reaches here and intimate to the Cubans that they cannot have an independent government until they manifest a disposition to protect the interests of the United States in their constitution.

Polygamy Stir Up the House. Polygamy in Utah threw the house into a ferment for a half-hour. Charges were made by Representative Landis (Ind.) that the United States agricultural college in Utah is presided over by polygamists. An amendment which he offered to the agricultural appropriation bill cutting off the appropriation of that institute so long as those conditions existed was adopted on the spur of the moment by a vote of 70 to 44. Two hours later the amendment was voted on again, when the bill was on final passage, and the amendment knocked out by a vote of 69 to 19. Representative King (Utah) opposed the amendment vigorously. It was offered in bad faith, he said, and was an affront to the people of Utah. It was an afterthought of the crusade which led to the expulsion from congress of a gentleman from his state. The practice of polygamy in Utah, he said, was a thing of the past. He retaliated by offering an amendment that no teacher or trustee shall be appointed to an agricultural college in any state who has been engaged in any lynching, and until proof shall have been furnished to the satisfaction of the appointing power that such teacher or trustee shall not have been guilty of immorality.

Speak Against the Subsidy Bill. The shipping bill was kept at the front in the senate throughout the day. No appreciable progress was made, most of the time being occupied by Mr. Turley (Tenn.) and Mr. Jones (Ark.) in speeches opposing the bill and severely arraigning its alleged favoritism. Mr. Jones declared it should be entitled "a bill to permit a select coterie of ship-owners to loot the United States treasury." After the speeches the formal reading of the bill was completed, but the consideration of amendments was not entered upon. Mr. Aldrich gave notice of two amendments, one providing that applicants for subsidy shall contract to build a new vessel within the United States within three years, and a second providing that the utmost limit of subsidy shall be fifteen years, instead of twenty years, as provided in the bill.

Mosquito Fleet Is Safe. The navy department received a cablegram announcing the arrival of the mosquito fleet at the Canary islands.

For Suffrage to All. Havana, Jan. 31.—The Cuban constitutional convention voted by a large majority to insert a clause in the constitution allowing universal suffrage. Senator Aleman said it was a right demanded by the Cubans, and that the convention would not be dealing fairly with the people if it failed to accord this right.

Salmon Cannery Combine. Victoria, B. C., Jan. 31.—A series of meetings is being held by the salmon cannery of the Fraser and northern British Columbia rivers to perfect a combine for the coming season and also to provide protection for the canners from the labor agitators, who succeeded in keeping the fishermen from working while the big run of fish was on last year.

Women's University Open. The Women's University club of New York is the latest organization among college graduates. The alumnae of the various colleges have planned an organization with the object of building a club house such as those enjoyed by men. Seven hundred women graduates were present at a meeting held, and the success of the scheme seems assured.

Woman Ordained as Minister. Sodus, N. Y., Jan. 31.—Miss F. Addie Tryon of Sodus has been ordained a minister of the Methodist Protestant church at Watertown. Miss Tryon has fame as an evangelist, whose influence upon the people is as Moody's was in effect. She is 28 years old, the daughter of Rev. William H. Tryon, who is also an evangelist. She will be assigned to a church in Northern New York in the spring.

Hans Valder Is Dead. Preston, Minn., Jan. 31.—Hans Valder, one of the first settlers in Fillmore county, died at his home in Neuburg yesterday, aged 86 years. Mr. Valder emigrated from Norway in 1845 and settled in La Salle county, Ill., where he organized a congregation and preached. He was the first Scandinavian Baptist minister in America. He was active in public affairs and was a member of the Minnesota legislature in 1872.

She was in a back room on the third floor. Through the heat and smoke Mr. Fuller carried her down stairs on his back. His feet were terribly burned and as he reached the open air he staggered and fell with his unconscious charge into the arms of a policeman. Col. William L. Gildersleeve, attache of the supreme court of New Mexico, was caught on the fourth floor. He tried to make his way to the rear. A plate glass door stopped him. He broke it with his fist and crawled through to safety. His face and hands were badly cut.

Cuts Off His Father. New York, Jan. 31.—Henry Ludlow Ritter was only 19 years old when, on Aug. 20 last, he died. He and his father, Henry T. Ritter, had quarreled because of a woman, and young Ritter ignored his father in his will, leaving $20,000, which he had inherited, to Martina Van Orden. His father was his only surviving relative. The elder Ritter contested the probate of the will on the ground of undue influence, but the will was admitted to probate. Martina Van Orden was a servant in the family, and was 40 years of age.

The ceremony was simple, but most impressive owing to the silent homage of the populace, who were present at the service in immense numbers. The remains of Verdi were borne from his residence and placed in a modest funeral car, which proceeded to the Church of St. Francis, the facade of which bore the inscription: "Peace to the soul of Giuseppe Verdi."

Die in New York Fire. Two Lives Lost and Several Injured in Burning Hotel. New York, Jan. 31.—Two lives were lost at the burning of the Hotel Jefferson, a seven-story building at 102-106 East Fifteenth street. The damage by fire is estimated at $50,000. Some persons in the hotel had thrilling escapes. Among them was Edward Marshall, the Cuban war correspondent. He was rescued, minus his cork leg, when escape seemed impossible. The dead are: Elmore Downing, 25 years old; a nurse; Elizabeth Reynolds, 30 years old, a waitress. The first was killed by jumping from a window on the sixth floor and the second was suffocated in her room on the seventh floor. Among those injured were: John P. Walsh, 50 years old, contractor; right knee fractured and badly bruised; John Gallagher, porter; right arm badly burned; J. Ensign Fuller, feet and arm badly burned. W. H. Voltz, New Haven; a student on the way to Princeton. John Chatfield, proprietor of the hotel, Mrs. Chatfield and her mother, Mrs. F. H. J. Ensign Fuller, an elderly man, made a thrilling rescue of his 17-year-old invalid niece, Miss May Upperman. She was in a back room on the third floor. Through the heat and smoke Mr. Fuller carried her down stairs on his back. His feet were terribly burned and as he reached the open air he staggered and fell with his unconscious charge into the arms of a policeman. Col. William L. Gildersleeve, attache of the supreme court of New Mexico, was caught on the fourth floor. He tried to make his way to the rear. A plate glass door stopped him. He broke it with his fist and crawled through to safety. His face and hands were badly cut.

Cuts Off His Father. New York, Jan. 31.—Henry Ludlow Ritter was only 19 years old when, on Aug. 20 last, he died. He and his father, Henry T. Ritter, had quarreled because of a woman, and young Ritter ignored his father in his will, leaving $20,000, which he had inherited, to Martina Van Orden. His father was his only surviving relative. The elder Ritter contested the probate of the will on the ground of undue influence, but the will was admitted to probate. Martina Van Orden was a servant in the family, and was 40 years of age.

Public Praise is Public Property—Janesville People May Profit By Local Experience.

Grateful people will talk Tell their experience for the public good. Janesville citizens praise Doan's Kidney Pills. Kidney sufferers appreciate this. They find relief for every kidney ill. Read what this citizen says:

Mr. E. T. Fish, of 855 Racine St., proprietor of the Fish Day Line, says: "When I was twenty years of age I fell, injured my back, and ever since that I have been troubled more or less with a dull, aching pain across the loins. It never laid me up but it was often painful and annoying. Of late years I have gone to a physician every six months and had myself thoroughly examined under the impression that there might be something wrong with my kidneys. The diagnosis always resulting in the physician claiming these organs were sound, but as the pains existed when I happened to notice in our Janesville papers that Doan's Kidney Pills were guaranteed to cure just such trouble, I procured a box of the People's Drug Co.'s, and took them Doan's Kidney Pills are a good preparation. My back has not ached since I used them. I have heard others speak very complimentary of them and if I did not know their merit and required such a medicine I would consider it a favor if some one suggested their use to me. For this reason I endorse them."

The fact that all women suffer during the birth-hour leads a great many women to accept a degree of suffering which is altogether unnecessary. Sometimes it is hours, sometimes days before the struggle is over. No medicine can absolutely eliminate pain from this time of travail, but Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can and does make the baby's advent practically painless. It acts upon the organs of maternity, giving them strength and elasticity. It produces physical comfort and mental cheerfulness. It is an effective tonic, giving the mother abundant nutrition for her child.

"I believe I owe my life to Dr. Pierce's remedies, and have long felt it my duty to acknowledge the benefit I received from Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Pleasant Pellets,'" says Mrs. Maria O. Hayzel, writing from Brookland, D. C. "Six years ago, after the birth of one of my children, I was left in a weak, run-down condition. My health seemed utterly gone. Life was a burden. I doctored with three different physicians and got no relief. I began to get worse, and to add to the complications, I suffered terribly from constipation. I chanced to see one of your advertisements and concluded to try the above remedies. I commenced to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Pleasant Pellets,' and began to improve right away, and continued improving and gaining in strength. I cannot express the relief, it was so great. Six months later my little daughter was born without much trouble. I feel that I would never have been able to endure my confinement only for the help due solely to Dr. Pierce's medicines. She was a fine, healthy child, and the only one I have ever been able to nurse."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation.

OUR RICHEST WOMAN

HETTY GREEN HAS INVESTED IN A HORSELESS CARRIAGE.

She is Anxious to Excel Young Vanderbilt—Mr. Green Keeps in the Background—Son of the Millionaire is a Good Railroader.

Mrs. Edward Henry Green, better known to the American public as Mrs. Hetty Green and as the richest woman and shrewdest speculator of her sex in America, has taken up automobilism as a pastime. As is her wont, Mrs. Green is fully in earnest in the matter, and she has been engaged for some time in experimenting with the horseless carriages with a view to selecting the best for her money. This millionaire's interest in the habit of disburysing any of her cash unless she knows exactly what it is to become of it. This very quality of knowing beforehand the outcome of her investments is what has built up her fortune to its colossal size.

Mrs. Green is credited with an ambition to excel young William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., in automobilism. The latter millionaire is the owner of one of the swiftest machines on this side of the Atlantic, and he has been having much fun with it trying to run over pedestrians, bucking stone walls, etc. But Mrs. Green may be expected to run her auto on more sober, quieter lines. Mr. Vanderbilt's automobile is known as the "White Ghost."

While Mrs. Green is engaged in automobilism and piling up fortunes in Wall street her spouse leads a very quiet, humdrum sort of existence. He is considerably older than his talented wife and looks like a poet or a member of the French academy. His tastes are gentlemanly and literary rather than active. Mrs. Green was originally Harriet Howland Robinson, an heiress of New Bedford, Mass. Her family is one of the oldest in America and has been wealthy for several generations. When Mr. Green married the future shrewd financier, he had a comfortable fortune of his own, gained in the Chinese and East India trade. This went the way of many more fortunes in speculations on Wall street. Mrs. Green then took matters into her own hands, with the conspicuous success that is familiar to Americans.

Two children have been born to the couple, Edward Howland Robinson Green and Sylvia. Miss Sylvia has, like her father, been very little in the public eye. Some months ago, however, came the report that some of Hetty Green's millions were to furnish a dowry for her daughter's marriage to a Spanish duke. The report was apparently unfounded, for nothing further has been heard of it.

Hetty Green's son is an interesting personage in many ways. Physically he is a giant, standing more than six feet. It is told of him that upon his graduation from college his mother furnished him with several thousand dollars as an experiment. This small fortune was burned up in the orthodox manner, and his mother then put him to work on a railroad at about $40 a month. The young man buckled down and learned the business. Partly through his natural and inherited ability and partly no doubt aided by his mother's millions he achieved success and is now president of the Texas Midland railroad. He has political aspirations and has been the Republican nominee for governor of Texas. He is a genial, companionable man, about 35 years of age, and, although he realizes the value of money, it is not recorded of him that he has inherited his mother's "closeness." His clever mother is remarkably fond of her son and watches his career with close attention. Mrs. Green stands ever ready to back him in his financial or political aspirations—within her own good judgment, of course—with all the influence force of her millions.

A Saving Suggestion.

Somebody gave the boy a dachshund.

The boy's father doesn't like dogs. "How did that cur get into the house?" he shouted when he caught sight of the long, low, rakish canine.

The boy hesitated. He didn't want to lose the dog.

"He looks as if he might have come in through the water pipe, daddy," he said, with an anxious grin.

He still has the dog.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

TO CURE THE GRIP.

Advice of a Famous Physician.

First and foremost, rest. Take care of yourself. Your already weakened nerves want rest, and must have it. If the attack is severe go to bed and remain there. More fatalities result from neglect of this precaution than from any other cause.

Eat sparingly. Your digestive organs are in no condition to take care of the large quantities of food.

Drink plenty of pure cold water. It alays the fever, stimulates the kidneys to action and opens up the pores of the skin. Keep the bowels open with Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills.

Take three doses of Dr. Miles' Nerve per day, and if you cannot sleep take an extra dose at bed time. To overcome the fever and to overcome the peculiar aches and pains of the grip, use Dr. Miles' Pain Pills. They act quickly and effectually, and no bad effects result from their use.

These remedies have been thoroughly tested more than a million times, and their efficiency is thoroughly established. They never fail to give relief.

Dr. Miles' Remedies can be found at any drug store, and they are sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle or package benefits or money re-

MRS. LUCINDA PASCHEL, Lambert, Ark., proves the above statement when she says: "I have had six children and was always in labor from twenty-four to thirty hours. BROWNING CLUB MEETS

Study of Rabbi Ben Ezra, the Poem of Old Age—Excellent Specimen of Browning's Style.

The Browning club at its session last evening studied Rabbi Ben Ezra which is one of the very few poems in the language expressing the serene joys which do or should belong to old age. If old age is not marked by mature judgment it must be because life's lessons have not been learned.

In this poem Browning displays his strong dramatic power which differs from the merely poetic gift by the increased catholicity of sympathy. The poet appeals to the whole race capable of appreciating beauty. The dramatist does all this and is able to place himself back of the thought of the individual.

The poem under discussion is purely Jewish in its thought, subordinating everything to the central idea of an overruling deity for whose glory man was made. It is in striking contrast to the poem, Cleon, previously studied which just as truly expressed the Greek idea of physical beauty, sensuous enjoyment and honor of old age. Rabbi Ben Ezra is full of noble lines expressing the loftiest optimism in Browning's peculiar style. Some expressions are very obscure, or at least liable to a number of misinterpretations.

Mr. Denison explained the doubtful passages as he went along and at the close asked Prof. Mayne for his opinion, especially of stanza 16. In reply Prof. Mayne read an extract from Emerson, the lines of thought running so nearly parallel as to suggest at least a common point of inspiration.

The Gordon knot was satisfactorily cut by a remark of the professor to the fact that he doubted if anyone knew exactly what was meant, and that the author himself might have been a little at sea to explain it clearly.

MEDAL FOR MRS. NATION.

Temperance Women at Topeka Take Up Collection for Purpose.

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 31.—Mrs. Nation is to have a medal. It will bear the inscription, "The bravest woman in Kansas," and will be presented to her as soon as sufficient money is secured for the purpose. The subject was brought up at the meeting of the State Temperance union and $117 contributed. Mrs. Nation did not make any attack upon saloons yesterday, but visited the county jail and talked and distributed fruit to the inmates. A resolution was introduced in the lower house of the legislature inviting Mrs. Carrie Nation to address that body and naming an hour for her to speak. The resolution was laid on the table. Mrs. Nation said she would remain in Topeka until every one of the 120 saloons are closed. "I will petition the governor every day," she said. "I will see the legislature; I will talk, and talk, and talk. I will use all the influence I can and if this does not suffice—well, there are other means." Mrs. Nation called upon the sheriff, the city attorney and the probate judge and urged each to enforce the law against saloons.

Women Raid Saloons.

Kansas City, Jan. 31.—A special to the Star from Anthony, Kas., says: Early this morning, before most citizens had reached their places of business, twelve women of the Anthony W. C. T. U., armed with hammers, hatchets and pickaxes, raided and completely demolished four "joints" in Anthony. Husbands of the women went along armed to protect their wives. Among the brigade were two or three schoolgirls under age, who did some of the most effective smashing. A greater part of the havoc was finished before the police or mayor were aware of what was going on. The actual damage done to personal property, aside from the liquor destroyed, is placed by the saloonkeepers at $2,000. This, however, is believed to be too conservative.

Venezuela Rebels Lose.

Caracas, Venezuela, Jan. 31.—The revolutionists have been defeated near Carupano with severe losses. Two sons of General Acosta have been made prisoners. Mejano and Rojas have also been defeated.

Our Unappropriated Lands.

The total area of the land surface of the United States is 2,270,557,440 acres, of which 929,308,068 acres are still non-appropriated. This is over one-third of the total area of the United States, and is divided among states in acres as follows: Alabama, 428,883; Alaska, 359,492,760; Arizona, 52,225,461; Arkansas, 3,833,423; California, 42,925,296; Colorado, 40,185,991; Florida, 1,690,428; Idaho, 43,996,408; Kansas, 1,059,664; Louisiana, 593,080; Michigan, 473,013; Minnesota, 5,627,394; Mississippi, 285,730; Missouri, 449,029; Montana, 69,073,491; Nebraska, 10,221,567; Nevada, 61,325,740; New Mexico, 57,050,650; North Dakota, 19,929,030; Oklahoma, 6,292,030; Oklahoma, 6,292,700; Oregon, 35,323,338; South Dakota, 12,107,114; Utah, 43,894,507; Washington, 11,756,785; Wisconsin, 374,243; Wyoming, 48,777,443; total, 929,308,068.

The authorities of Portland, Pa., have revived an old ordinance providing a fine for the use of too vigorous language. The tariff is 62 cents per profane word.

ELECTRICAL NOTES

Latest Inventions and Discoveries of Interest.

The construction of the first electric tramway in London is rapidly approaching completion.

All the Russian warships on the Chinese station are to be fitted with Popoff's system of wireless telegraphy. The experiments with this apparatus have been carried out up to distances of 40 miles with perfect success.

Electricity is now beginning to be extensively used in Calcutta for various purposes, such as lighting, fans to take the place of punkas that were pulled by coolies, for driving machinery, etc.

One of the large agricultural implement manufacturers has about completed arrangements to engage in the manufacture of the Borsig electric plow for the American market. This machine has come into very general use in Europe and will probably become popular here.

A new method for hardening and increasing the life of storage battery plates has just been patented. It consists in dipping the plates alternately in acidulated water and a dilute solution of pyridin, which is a complex chemical substance derived synthetically from coal tar residues. In the pyridin solution is a small quantity of alcohol, and it is asserted that the combination of all the agencies concerned results in greatly strengthening the plate mechanically and also by highly oxidizing the plate in making it of considerably higher capacity than it would be without this treatment.

Recently Dr. W. Freudenthal of New York read an interesting paper before the American Electro-Therapeutic association on the subject of the value of electric light in the treatment of tuberculosis of the throat and lungs. Sunlight and electric light, he said, have the same effect upon the system, and it has been proved by thousands of cases already treated that the beneficial result of treatment by electric light is due to the action of those rays which approximate most closely to sunlight, the blue and the ultra violet rays of the arc light.

A remarkable instance of a battery of accumulators working under water was recently given at the municipal electric plant in Munich. The station is situated on an island in the Isar, and during a flood the water covered the batteries. According to The Scientific American, one of the batteries which ran the car lines was completely cut out, and it was thought that the other, which furnished light, would have to be treated in the same way. The flywheels of the engines were half in the water. Nevertheless as it was almost indispensable to light at least the principal streets of the city it was decided to try to operate the submerged battery. The attempt was successful, and the battery which had been constructed to give 6,000 ampere hours with a 600 ampere discharge was able to furnish 4,000 ampere hours during the night. The remainder was lost in discharges in the water.

To Make One Grow.

The Chicago Record says a French physician claims to have found a new drug which will add to the human stature. It is a simple decoction of cereals, which are boiled three hours. The liquid is strained, sugared and drunk while fresh. Dr. Springer states that his experiments with the drug on animals and children indicated such a control over their growth that he could even make giants of those whose organization was especially favorable. It is a point already well established that by feeding a child with quantities of very moist food he will be gigantic in stature as compared with a child nourished on dried, smoked, spiced, astringent or tonic food administered sparingly. The inhabitants of the north of Europe drink much tea, beer and milk, which, together with the influence of their moderately cool and moist climate, favors the growth of their bodies. In southern Europe, where dry and spiced food is used, together with spirituous liquors, bodies, though more sprightly, are generally shorter. Of all foods cereals are those that contain most soluble phosphates, which serve as nutrients to the bones. Dr. Springer, while relying on cereals to promote growth, prescribes also systematic gymnastics for exciting and regulating assimilation, for if the bony structure be too rapidly or prematurely developed the body will become stiff and unmanageable, and instead of growth dwarfing will ensue. He also uses at the same time electric discharges, especially at the knee joint, with continual examination by the X ray, to observe the progress of the method. In spite of all this there is a stoppage of the growth, fresh thyroid gland of calf or sheep is administered. Dr. Springer insists above everything that people who wish to make the most of their growth must abstain from alcohol. Arrest of development is particularly noticeable in districts given over to alcoholism. In France there are whole villages unable to furnish a single recruit to the army because for this reason the inhabitants are all undersized.

Newest Photography.

Photographing objects solely by the light from the planet Venus has been successfully accomplished. The experiments were conducted within the dome of the Smith observatory at Geneva, N. Y., so that all outside light was excluded except that which came from Venus through the open shutter of the dome. The time was the darkest hour of the night, after the planet had risen and before the approach of dawn. The actinic property of the light from Venus was much stronger than anticipated, the photographic plates being remarkably clear, intense and fully timed.

Gymnastics for Women.

Modern athletics are now adding strength to the muscles and grace to the forms of many young women, especially in the large cities. This is certain to bring good results to future generations. Light gymnastics and outdoor games are an incentive to actions which bring changes in a chemical way to the blood which are necessary and healthful.

Negligent Giving.

Russell A. Gardner, a vehicle manufacturer of St. Louis, gave $10,000 to his employees as a Christmas present. When he balanced his books for the year he found that the company had made $10,000 more than had been expected and more than was necessary for the business or for personal wants. The money was distributed among the employees according to their length of service.

Persian Army Being Reorganized.

Since the loan of $5,000,000 and the sale of guns to the Persian government by Russia, the Persian army is being reorganized under Russian instructors, who are now urging a considerable increase to its numbers.

Magnolia as Mississippi Emblem.

The school children of Mississippi have voted in favor of the magnolia as the state's flower. The legislature is expected to accept their choice as decisive and formally to make the magnolia the state's floral emblem.
